

FOAM-iT and Nilfisk FOOD enters into a Distribution Cooperation.

FOAM-iT and Nilfisk FOOD are both world market leaders into foam cleaning solutions for the food industry – just working from different platforms. The solutions from FOAM-iT is primarily powered by air driven pumps whereas the solutions from Nilfisk FOOD are based on water powered units. Both solutions generating foam cleaning and sanitation in different environments.

There has been made a worldwide distribution agreement between FOAM-iT and Nilfisk FOOD.

As a result of this FOAM-iT will distribute Nilfisk FOOD solutions in North America and Nilfisk FOOD will distribute the FOAM-iT solutions in Europe and Asia & Pacific. The overall objective is to bring the most complete offering to the market, giving the end-user the benefit of both technologies.

Furthermore, utilize the regional geographical strength of both companies, to make a true one stop shopping for foam cleaning equipment.

This cooperation will be initiated by September 2018 after which all customers will be contacted with more detailed information regarding how the new setup will work.
